

Advanced Officials Training @ Camp Texas – College Station Camp June 17-18, 2022

Camp Texas is committed to promoting excellence in basketball officiating for those officials with previous two and three-person experience. Camp Texas is excited to be associated with the Texas A&M University Team Camp experience for the tenth consecutive year for basketball officials throughout the state of Texas.

The Texas A&M Team Camp features 6-A through 3-A level high school teams. All campers will experience a combination of informative classroom sessions and officiate in competitive up-tempo games. All games will be critiqued by NCAA experienced clinicians. Our camp is recognized in the state of Texas as a leader for our teaching methods.

Camp Texas welcomes officials from THSBOA, TASO and UIL. Your fee is inclusive of dormitory lodging (Thursday and Friday, with checkout on Saturday), a small officiating related gift and meals (which will be provided during camp times).

Where: Texas A&M University – Reed Arena, College Station, Texas.

When: Thursday June 16th , - Registration and check-in for lodging: 5-10pm

Friday June 17th , – Classroom in AM & Games (evaluated) starting at Noon

Saturday June 18th , – Games (evaluated); Film study & Classroom

What: The Texas A&M Team Camp offers highly competitive boys' team play. Combined with a staff of classroom instructors and game clinicians, Camp Texas will be a beneficial experience for all two and three-person officials.

Cost: $225 per camper – registration and payment received prior to June 1st.

Chapter Group Fees available for 5 or more campers.

(We offer selected meals in addition to the lodging)

To Register: Go to www.camp texas.us to complete registration form. Payment can be made online via Zelle or mailed by check/money order. Space is limited to 36 campers, so early registration is encouraged. A $75 registration fee (Non-refundable) is required during registration. Registrations will not be accepted otherwise. Your payment in full must be received by June 1st 2022.

All campers will receive updated information prior to the beginning of Camp Texas. For additional information there is a frequently asked questions (FAQS) page available on-line on our website or contact Camp Directors Scott Bieber (281) 615-3045 or Mike Lum (713) 828-9012.