

REMEMBRANCE OF LIONEL

He was a Father, a Grandfather, a Great-Grandfather,
An Uncle and a Friend

But foremost, he was a child of God,
Who has made his way home.

How little we know sometimes of those who
Shape our lives.

What makes them smile, what makes them cry,
What makes them who they are.

Yet, even when we don't know them,
We know they are loved.

LOVED
Not for their possessions or the precious memories

LOVED
For the man who was a child and the child who became a man

LOVED
For being and contributing to those who will go on

LOVED
Because love is greater than all of us and rests Forever in our hearts.
